

Wine Spectator

www.winespectator.com

AS SEEN ON WINESPECTATOR.COM

9 California Cabernets Under $25

New reviews of great-value reds from Paso Robles and Sonoma

Photo by: iStock/carlosbezz

Very good, juicy Cabernet Sauvignon doesn't have to break the bank.

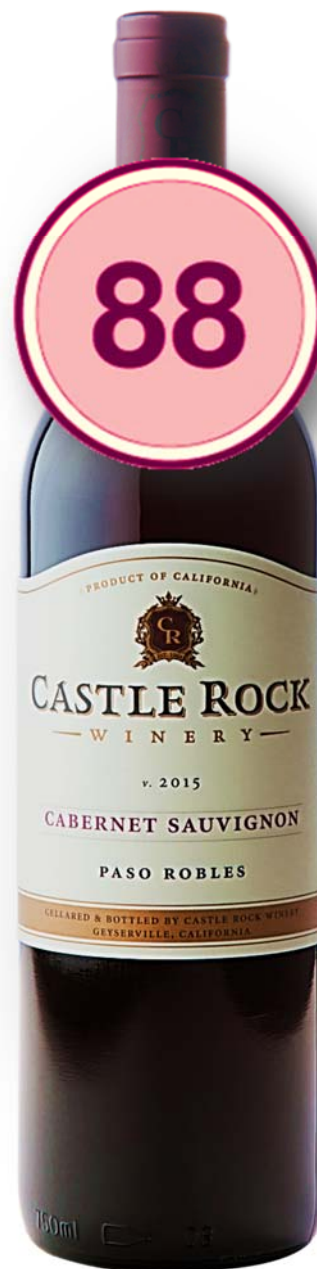

Aaron Romano

Posted: September 18, 2017

CASTLE ROCK Cabernet Sauvignon Paso Robles 2015

Score: 88 | $14

Pure, rich and focused on a core of plum, blueberry and violet notes, with tannins that are firm yet rounded, making for a distinctive and compelling glass of wine. Drink now through 2028. 7,900 cases made. —J.L.

CASTLE ROCK
— W I N E R Y —

Award-winning Wines at Affordable Prices