

Wine Spectator

www.winespectator.com

AS SEEN ON WINESPECTATOR.COM

12 Affordable California Pinot Noirs

New reviews of reds from Santa Barbara, Sonoma and more for $30 or less

Photo by: Courtesy of Cattleya

Cattleya's Alma de Cattleya Pinot Noir delivers quality at just $25.

Aaron Romano
Posted: February 5, 2018

CASTLE ROCK Pinot Noir Central Coast 2016

Score: 88 | $12

Fruity and rich-tasting, with some sanguine notes to the cherry and mulberry flavors. Cedary accents show on the refined finish. Drink now through 2020. 10,075 cases made. —K.M.

CASTLE ROCK
— W I N E R Y —

Award-winning Wines at Affordable Prices