AS FEATURED IN OCTOBER 2020

BEST BUYS IN THE MARKET

PINOT NOIR

New Pinot Noirs will be featured in the upcoming November issue of Connoisseurs' Guide, but, in the meantime, we would remind of a handful of top-performing, multiple-star-winning bottlings and surprisingly affordable efforts that should not be missed.

($40.00) are Pinots that warrant whatever extra search their purchase might require, and, as far as sheer bang for the buck is concerned, the CASTLE ROCK Reserve Russian River Valley 2018 ($18.00) and its cellarmate, the CASTLE ROCK Central Coast 2018 ($12.00) are not only delicious, well-defined Pinots that are untouchable at the price, they come with the added, very welcome bonus of being comparatively easy to find.
